Scene—A Public Square in a Sicilian Village.

Synopsis of "Cavalleria Rusticana"

The curtain rises on Easter festivities of the peasants. Turiddu, son of Dame Lucia, keeper of the village inn, having returned home from service in the army, soon becomes the favorite of all the village maidens, among whom Santuzza, who is the chosen one, and who is soon betrayed by Turiddu. Previous to joining the army Turiddu had courted the pretty Lola, the village belle, but on his return finds her wedded to Alfio.

When Turiddu meets Lola they are reconciled, and he neglects Santuzza, while Lola is faithless to her husband. Santuzza, distracted with being abandoned, tells Alfio of the intrigue of the guilty pair. He challenges Turiddu to mortal combat, who unwillingly accepts the def, and is killed.

a vain pretty baggage, and he does not trust her. Tonio, a humpback, malicious, the clown, makes hot love to her in the village where they are to play upon the day of their arrival. She repulses him and strikes him with a whip. In revenge he brings Canio upon Nedda and her lover, Silvio, a farmer in the neighborhood. Silvio runs away and Canio does not see his face. There are bitter words between man and wife, and Canio, in agony, prepares for his clowning.

ACT II.—The people gather to see the show, and Silvio is in the crowd. The play is the old story of Pantaloon's jealousy and the love of Columbine and Harlequin. The crazed Canio acts with such realism that the peasants are enraptured. Suddenly he asks the name of the lover. Nedda defies him. He stabs her and kills Silvio, who starts from his place. Laughing madly, he shrieks out: "The comedy is finished!"
